

Chairman Powell: Please delay you vote on communication ownership, so there may be more input from the affected public. I believe further consolidation will not be beneficial to the public or our democracy--rural or urban. Internet access is not a a substitute for our current public media. We need our local news especially.